FALL.

STUART & GHOLSON.

We take pleasure in announcing to our friends that our stock of Fall and Winter Goods is now arriving. We shall offer this season a stock of Dress Fabrics, Trimmings, Fancy Goods, Notions, etc., which for variety, style and excellence of material, equals anything we have heretofore offered. Our large and increasing trade enables us to buy from first hands at the best sources of supply. Always on the alert to gain every advantage in prices, we are happy to state that this season we have secured the most attractive stock in the market, at prices which we guarantee "Rock Bottom." We affirm our ability to duplicate Chicago and St. Louis prices. We KEEP ONLY THE MOST DESIRABLE GOODS, ALLOW NO REMAINANTS TO ACCUMULATE, MAKE NO BAD DEBTS, AND WILL NOT BE UNDER-SOLD BY ANY HOUSE IN THE TRADE. A visit of inspection will convince purchasers of the extraordinary bargains offered by the popular and progressive one-price, cash Dry Goods house of

Stuart & Gholson.

DELTA CITY CIGARS.—Mr. T. E. Sullivan, the druggist, on Commercial, between Ninth and Tenth streets, received yesterday five thousand Delta City cigars. This brand has a big run from those that use the weed. Some good judges prefer them to many ten cent cigars sold in town. 9-26-74

M. HODGE will only remain in town this week—go to him with your old plug hats, raked from cast-away places and lumber rooms, and have a fashionable tile made to cover your head. The cost is almost nothing. 9-24-74

Rooms to REPT.—Mrs. Stewart, corner of Poplar and Twelfth streets, near THE BULLETIN office, has several comfortable rooms to rent, with board. Mrs. Stewart spreads one of the best tables in Cairo, and her prices are reasonable. 9-24-74

THE Best oysters at the Delmonico Restaurant. 267-9-24-74

FOR SALE.—The Egyptian saloon, owned by Henry Lattner, is for sale, together with the fixtures and stock, and the privilege of a lease of the building on good terms; also, the cottage in the rear. For further information, inquire on the premises. 9-24-74

LOOK OUT FOR BARGAINS.—Mr. A. Marx has just returned from New York, where he purchased one of the finest and largest stock of clothing, gents' furnishings, goods, hats, etc., of the very latest style, which he will sell LOWER than the LOWEST. All goods marked in plain figures. 275-9-24-74

NEW GOODS.—The new stock of J. Burger, for fall and winter, commenced to arrive yesterday, and everybody around his store is busy taking in and piling up the new goods. The display is very fine, and the selections have been made with taste and judgment, as all can satisfy themselves by calling. 284-9-26-74

STRAYED OR STOLEN.—From the residence of Mrs. Johnson at Sexton's Creek bridge, a large brown horse, small star in forehead, blind in right eye, about sixteen hands high, eleven years old. Any one finding him will be liberally rewarded by bringing him home or letting me know that I may get him. SOPHIA JOHNSON. 279-9-25-74

NEW MILLINERY GOODS.—Mrs. Swander leaves the city on Monday morning for a visit to St. Louis and Chicago, where she proposes to purchase a large stock of millinery goods. Mrs. Swander's well known good taste in the selection of hats, bonnets, etc., is an argument for the ladies of Cairo to defer purchasing their millinery until they have an opportunity to examine Mrs. Swander's stock. 279-9-25-74

Mrs. HULT has just returned from the east with a full stock of millinery goods and ladies' misses' and children's shoes; also, a large stock of ladies' hair switches, and goods belonging to the millinery trade, cuffs, hosiery, etc., with a large lot of notions, which she will sell cheaper than any other place in Cairo. Store on the corner of Eleventh street and Washington avenue. 265-9-22-74

MILLINERY AND DRESS-MAKING.—Mrs. Smith Frillingsdorf and Miss M. K. Hemis will open on Saturday, the 26th instant, at the southwest corner of Seventh street and Washington avenue, a select and fashionable stock of dress trimmings, which they propose to sell at fair prices, and invite the ladies of Cairo and vicinity to call and examine. Mrs. F. is now in St. Louis making purchases. 271-9-23-74

FALL STOCK OF BOOTS AND SHOES.—Mr. A. Black is now receiving his stock of fall boots and shoes, which, from his experience, promises to be the best selected in the city. Always a careful and close purchaser, he gives the public the advantages he has to purchase at the very bottom price, for he buys direct from the manufacturers, for cash. The stock is very large and complete, and the styles of the latest and most approved cut. 266-9-22-74

MATRESS AND FURNITURE MANUFACTURERS.—Messrs. Segrist and Harman have opened, on Washington avenue between Thirtieth and Fourteenth street a shop, where they propose to do all kinds of repairing on spring or common mattresses, upholstering, sofas, lounges, chairs, etc., and also repairing and re-varnishing furniture of all descriptions. They will sew and lay down carpets and hang paper. New mattresses and furniture made to order. They have come to Cairo to stay, and respectfully solicit the patronage of the public. 283-9-26-74

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The partnership heretofore existing between Daniel Arter and E. White, under the firm name of D. Arter & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent, both parties retiring. The business will be continued by their successors, Charles D. Arter and James W. Stewart, under the name and style of Arter & Stewart, who will pay all claims against, and collect all bills due, the old firm of D. Arter & Co. Cairo, Ill., September 21st, 1874.

D. ARTER, E. WHITE, C. D. ARTER, J. W. STEWART.

EXCURSION TICKETS.—On and after September 20th excursion tickets to Louisville and Cincinnati, will be sold by the Cairo and Vincennes railroad, advanced to the following rates, good to October 3rd: To Louisville and return, $14.15; to Cincinnati and return, $15.85. The above includes a ticket into the exposition hall. Tickets for sale at the general office and at the Anchor Line office, 71 Ohio levee.

FOR RENT.—The Bielock house, corner of Seventh and Walnut streets, containing thirteen rooms. A No. 1 location for a boarding house. To a good tenant the above house will be rented at a low figure. Apply to C. N. Hughes, No. 63 Ohio levee. 259-9-26-74

THE BULLETIN.

We are making arrangements to greatly improve THE BULLETIN in appearance, and we ask the patronage of the people of Cairo: that we may "get out of the woods." In the venture of the telegraphic dispatches we were unfortunate, and got into debt, but we were willing to try again, in the hope that enterprise will at last find its reward in Cairo.

REMEMBER the Opposition meeting at the court house to-morrow night.

RETURNED.—Rev. Mr. Waller has been returned by the conference to Cairo, a fact that will give much pleasure to his many friends in this city.

BUYER.—Mr. Hufoer, of the Planter's house, is going to give his guests and boarders a treat at to-day's dinner. His table will be supplied with everything that the market affords and champagne to wash it down.

MR. JOHN H. OBERLY will reply to Senator Logan at the court house to-morrow (Monday) night.

The next regular communication of Cairo Lodge No. 237, A. F. M., will be held at 7 o'clock (Monday) evening, at 7 o'clock. Visiting brethren cordially invited to attend. B. F. BLAKE, Secretary.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—The new packing house market in Wilcox's block, will be open Saturday next, with fresh meats and new laid, at the lowest market price. HOWE & BRO. 210-9-3-74

LUMBER STILL GOING DOWN.—As we are determined to close out our stock speedily, preparatory to winding up business, we will sell all kinds of lumber at two dollars per thousand less than market prices. A large lot of lath and stove wood on hand, which will be sold at correspondingly low rates. WALL & KNE. 321-9-3-74

POLICE COURT.—William Thomas, arrested by Sheehan on a charge of vagrancy. He was asked to hand over fifty dollars. It is unnecessary to say that William was unable to comply with this request. He was anxious to leave Cairo though, and asked the judge to kindly grant him permission to do so, and the last seen of him he was on his way to Mound City.

Mary Coyne and Katie Highland, living on Fifteenth street, opposite the custom house, had a little dispute and finally made up their minds to settle the difficulty by pulling one another's hair. Policemen Sheehan and Brown appeared on the scene of action and walked the couple before Judge Bird, who fined them five dollars and costs. Being poor in pocket they were sent to the McCarthy house to board for twelve days at the expense of the city.

MR. JOHN H. OBERLY will reply to Senator Logan at the court house to-morrow (Monday) night.

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following pupils in room No. 1 Thirtieth street school, are entitled to have their names on the roll of honor for the week ending September 18 1874: Minnie Powers, Eliza Victor, Fanny Wetzel, Ella Clodfelder, Ellen Law, Caroline Whitcomb, Mary Rittenhouse, Bettie Kormeyer, Maude Hacker, Hetty Willis, Emma Barry, Minnie Kellie, Lilly Martin, Lizzie Parker, Belle Redman, Ellen Hubler, Allie Alden, Minnie Baird, Clara Igel, Eddie Taylor, Lode Tessier, Willie Tessier, Isaac Mulkey, Jas. Sandusky, Alaric Richardson, Zeraw Bochet, Charley Spiller, Philip Baugh, Wm. Clark, Geo. Williamson.

JOE ROSEBERRY is now in full control of the Washington bakery, and having learned the wants of the public, is prepared to supply on call all demands for French loaf, Boston, Brown and Graham bread, and everything else ordinarily found in a first-class bakery. He maintains a full stock of confectioneries, and can, as well as any other dealer in the city, fill all orders in that line.

Cakes baked, frosted or ornamented on short notice. Special attention given to the orders of wedding or picnic parties. 9-12-74

GRAND BALL.—The Carroll ball club will give a grand social hop at Scheel's hall, Tuesday evening, September 29th. The boys propose making this one of the most pleasant affairs of the season. The right kind of young men are at the head of the affair, and we hope their highest expectations may be realized.

The following are the committee of arrangements: J. T. Welch, William Toomey, John Campbell, E. F. Glines. Floor managers—Phil. Howard and James Carroll. 244-9-16-74

THE barber shop is on the corner of Eighth street and Commercial avenue, where J. George Stenhouse with his gentlemanly assistants can be found at any hour of the day or night, ready to soothe your feelings with a smooth shave, or cool your temper and head with a good shampoo. It is a first-class shop, and you are sure of receiving first-class treatment. Ladies' and children's hair cut or curled in the most approved style. 8-15-74

PERSONAL.—Erwin Maxwell, the oil man, of E. Maxwell & Co., St. Louis, paid Cairo a flying visit this week.

—Mr. Sam Williamson returned this week from a three months' sojourn at Utterden Springs, much improved in health.

—Charles P. Wiggins, representing Owen, Lane & Dyer, machine company, of St. Louis, is in the city on business, stopping at the St. Charles.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stearnes, returned from their Michigan trip last Friday. Mr. S. looks happy again.

LECTURE.—The winter course of lectures before the Liberal Religious Association, of Cairo, will be opened by the Rev. T. B. Taylor, of Chicago, in their hall on the corner of Washington avenue and Twelfth street, Sunday evening, October 4th, 1874. Mr. Taylor was formerly a prominent Methodist clergyman and a professor in some of their institutions of learning. He is a scientific and eloquent speaker. The public are cordially invited. Mr. Taylor will lecture during the four Sundays of October.

FOR SALE.—A good fruit farm, one mile west of Cobden station, on the I. C. R. R., and eighty rods east of the Cairo and St. Louis railroad. Said farm has a lime kiln working on it, and contains a fine bed of lime rock. The fruit trees just coming into bearing, consist of apples, pears, cherries and plums. Also strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, pie plant, etc. Will be sold for a small sum down, balance on long time. Inquire of J. Lambert, corner Eighteenth street and Commercial avenue, or C. Winston, Ohio levee, Cairo Illinois. 9-27-74

CHANCE FOR A GOOD BUSINESS.—CAIRO RAILROAD HOUSE.—Desiring to retire from the hotel business, I will give to any person satisfactory to the Illinois Central railroad company, the Railroad house, now kept by me, corner Eighteenth street and Commercial avenue, provided such person will purchase the furniture of the house, which I will sell at a reasonable price, and take the business of my hands without delay. Further particulars apply at the Railroad house. 9-27-74

PERSONAL.—We find the following among the arrivals at the St. Charles: L. W. Vance, Louisville; Capt. Cutler, Metropolis; N. N. Davis, Indianapolis; Dan Hogan, Mound City; W. D. Harrah, Newark, New Jersey; Joseph Watts, Liverpool, England; W. H. Barrett, New York; J. B. Reiter, St. Louis.

Delmonico.—We picked out the following names from a page full of arrivals at the Delmonico: J. D. Peters, Marshall, Michigan; F. Solomon, Chicago; W. W. Whitmore, Chicago; Dr. O. McIntire and wife, Bloomington, Illinois; W. W. Wilton and wife, Polaski.

—Planter.—T. C. Glover, St. Louis; P. Parker, Holly Springs, Mississippi; G. Terrill, Highlandville, Kentucky, are a few of the guests at the Planter's House.

PICTURESQUE AMERICA. Parties having the above book ready for binding would do well, before sending their books off with agents, to inquire at the City Bindery, where they are bound just as cheap and good and neat as in St. Louis or Chicago. J. C. HURDIS. 264-9-22-74

THE RECEPTION.

AN IMPERFECT DESCRIPTION OF A NOTABLE EVENT.

The complimentary hop tendered by the St. Charles Club to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howe, on Friday night last, will long be remembered by those present as a remarkable affair. The rain which came on at intervals during the day and evening delayed the presence of many until a late hour. However, shortly after 9 o'clock, Prof. Boden's band started up a march, the guests entered the ball room and the festivities of the evening began. The party numbered about fifty couples. Supper was announced at 12 o'clock, and was pronounced one of the best ever served up at the St. Charles. The costumes of the ladies were beautiful, many of them elegant and costly, and all of them becoming. We give below a description of some of them:

The bride, Mrs. Charles Howe, looked exceedingly well in drab silk and blue trimming; Mrs. C. Bradley wore an elegant pink gros-grain silk; Misses Lou and Ella Walbridge wore white with pink silk, sleeveless jacket; Mrs. Dr. Williams, black silk white overdress; Miss Lemon, of Belleville, wore gros-grain black silk with light trimming; Misses Annie, Jessie and Jessie Phillips wore white; Miss Ida Harrell, white with pink trimming; Miss Annie Elliott, white alpaca trimmed with white satin; Miss Kittie Brown, of Metropolis, wore blue silk with black lace overdress; Mrs. Rittenhouse, drab silk white overdress with pink trimming; Mrs. Charles Cunningham, gray poplin SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.—For the cure of consumption, coughs and colds. The great virtue in this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

SCHENCK'S BRA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &c. The tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &c. These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The See Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines preserved in.
